ORGANIZED WORK AGAINST DISEASE

Virginia Anti-Tuberculosis Association Is Formally Launched.

OFFICERS ARE ELECTED

Leaders in State Declare Formal War Against White Plague.

1. Dissemination of knowledge concerning the causes, treatment and prevention of tuberculosis.

2. Investigation of the prevalence of tuberculosis in Virginia and the collecting and publishing of useful information.

3. Securing of proper legislation for the relief and prevention of tuberculosis.

4. Co-operation with the public authorities, State and local Boards of Health, the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis, medical societies and other organizations in approved measures adopted for the prevention of the disease.

5. Promotion of the organization and work of local societies in all parts of Virginia.

6. Encouragement of adequate provision for consumptives by the establishment of sanatoria, hospitals, dispensaries, and otherwise.

Adopting the above declaration of principles, and electing a full corps of officers and directors to serve for one year, the Virginia Anti-Tuberculosis Association was formally organized in Richmond yesterday for what is expected to be the final campaign for the defeat and annihilation of the white plague in Virginia.

Gathered in the rooms of the State Board of Health were a number of physicians who have taken an active part in the warfare against consumption, together with citizens who are in thorough sympathy with the movement.

Officers Chosen.

Dr. W. F. Drewry, Superintendent of the Central State Hospital at Petersburg, was temporary chairman, and Dr. Allen W. Freeman, Assistant State Health Commissioner, acted as temporary secretary. Proceeding to the selection of permanent officers, the following were elected:

President, Captain W. V. Baker, of Hallsboro, member of the House of Delegates from Chesterfield county.

Secretary, Miss Anne Gulley, of Richmond.

Treasurer, Thomas W. Scott, of Richmond.

Board of Directors—C. P. Wertenbaker, surgeon, of Norfolk; John T. Maginnis, of Radford; Dr. William F. Drewry, of Petersburg; George W. Wright, of Martinsburg; John W. Hays, of Petersburg; Rev. J. T. Martin, secretary of the State Board of Charities, Richmond; Mrs. D. W. Reade, Charlotte; Dr. Ennon G. Williams, State Health Commissioner, Richmond; Dr. E. C. Levy, City Chief Health Officer, Richmond; Miss S. H. Cabinis, Richmond.

By-Laws Formulated.

A full set of by-laws was adopted. It is provided that the board of directors shall annually elect an executive committee, composed of the president, the secretary and three other members of the board, who shall have general charge of the work in vacation of the State Association. The directors are divided into five groups of two members each, one group to be elected every year.

Members of the association are to be divided into three classes—members, sustaining members and patrons. Any one interested in the work who will co-operate with the association is eligible as a member upon payment of annual dues of $1; sustaining members are to pay $10 annually; patrons $100 annually.

An important part of the work will be the establishment of local leagues in as many cities, towns and country districts as possible.

The new board of directors will hold its first meeting in about two weeks. It will then select an executive secretary, who will have charge of the work of selling the Red Cross stamps during the coming Christmas season. The Virginia Anti-Tuberculosis Association will not meet again until about a year hence.

COLTON IN CHARGE

Former Philippine Collector Now Governor of Porto Rico.

(Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.) SAN JUAN, P. R., November 6.—Colonel George R. Colton, former collector of customs of the Philippines, was inaugurated as Governor of Porto Rico to-day. The oath of office was administered by Chief Justice Hernandez, and Bishop Jones, the Roman Catholic bishop of the island, delivered the invocation.

The new Governor delivered his inaugural address at the theatre, after which he reviewed a parade of the Porto Rico Provisional Regiment, marines and police. Subsequently, the new Governor held an informal reception at the Executive House, where he was visited by the foreign consuls, many distinguished citizens and a delegation of the Republican party. No delegation from the Unionist party called.

In his address, Governor Colton called special attention to the commercial conditions in the island. He asserted that Porto Rico would always belong to the United States. He declared that he would make appointments regardless of the political affiliations of the appointees, and was determined to govern the island irrespective of political obstruction.

The address was interrupted by repeated applause. A telegram from President Taft congratulating the new Governor on his inauguration was read.

ENJOINED FROM ELOPING

Wife of Millionaire Takes Legal Steps to Keep Her Husband.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 6.—Charging that the affections of her husband, Alonzo Hornby, the coffee candy multi-millionaire, had been alienated by Mrs. Mabel J. Watson, a wealthy and charming young widow, of Redlands, Cal., Mrs. Hornby has brought suit in the superior court asking for $100,000 damages. In her petition Mrs. Hornby asked that a temporary restraining order be granted to prevent her millionaire husband and Mrs. Watson from leaving the United States by sea.

It was the belief of Mrs. Hornby, her daughter and two sons, as set forth in the complaint, that the wealthy candy manufacturer had arranged to flee from California and to make his home in Naples, Italy. In support of that contention the petitioner stated that her husband had shipped his automobile from Redlands to Naples, Italy, and that he had transferred his church membership in Redlands to the Fifth-avenue (Rockefeller's) church, in New York.

TO FURTHER RELIGION

Los Angeles Millionaire Gives $300,000 for World-Wide Work.

CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—A Los Angeles millionaire whose identity is being kept secret, has just donated $300,000 toward the establishment and furtherance of a world-wide religious work, whose active director in Chicago will be the Rev. A. C. Dixon, pastor of the Moody church.

The scheme embraces a literary evangelistic program, the preparation and printing of religious works, which will be distributed throughout the civilized world.
